This is a template for a post. Note that draft is set to true. if you do not want to show it.

In the post: - the title appears on top. - the subtitle just below. - then the categories and then - the description

Below there is the author and the published date, Next modified date and then follows the text in the body.

On the “home” one finds the image then the title. Next line is the calculated reading time, followed by the categories the description and finally author name and publication date.

This template is used by simply making a copy of the containing folder and editing the index file.
